Layton City has developed a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Annual Action Plan for the 2020-2021 Program Year. The Plan describes City housing and community development needs of low income persons, and outlines the projects that will be undertaken during the Program Year to address these needs. Needs include program administration, public service organization assistance, affordable housing initiatives, historic downtown rehabilitation and infrastructure improvements.

The City Council will hold a Public Hearing to review the Plan on Thursday, May 7, 2020, at 7:00 p.m., at the Regularly Scheduled Council Meeting, in the Council Chambers of the City Center, 437 North Wasatch Drive, Layton, Utah. At the conclusion of the Public Hearing the City Council may adopt the Plan.

Copies of the proposed Plan are available at the Layton City Community and Economic Development Department, 437 North Wasatch Drive, Layton, Utah.

Written comments may be submitted to the Community and Economic Development Department up to the time of the Public Hearing. Questions and written comments regarding the 2020-2021 CDBG Annual Action Plan and Public Hearing should be directed to Morgan Cloward, Layton City Community and Economic Development, 437 North Wasatch Drive, Layton, Utah, 84041, or by phone at (801) 336-3770.
